

Dr. Martens plc Nomination Committee Terms of Reference

Approved: January 2021

MEMBERSHIP AND QUORUM

The Dr. Martens plc (the “Company”) Nomination Committee (the “Committee”) shall comprise at least three independent non-executive directors of the Company. Members of the Committee are appointed by the board of directors of the Company (the “Board”) in consultation with the chair of the Committee. A majority of the members of the Committee must be independent non-executive directors. If the Board decides that a member of the Committee is no longer independent and as a result a majority of the members of the Committee are not independent non-executive directors, that member will cease to be a member of the Committee.

The Board appoints the chair of the Committee, who must be either the chair of the Board or an independent non-executive director. The chair of the Board must not chair the Committee when it is dealing with the appointment of their successor. In the absence of the Committee chair and/or an appointed deputy, the remaining members present may elect one of the independent non-executive directors present to chair the meeting.

The quorum shall be any two members, both of whom must be independent non-executive directors.

SECRETARY

The General Counsel and Company Secretary, or another suitably qualified person nominated by the General Counsel and Company Secretary, shall act as the secretary of the Committee (the “Secretary”).

COMMITTEE MEETINGS

The Committee will meet as often as it deems necessary to fulfil its responsibilities, but in any case at least three times a year. The Committee may hold meetings by telephone or using any other method of electronic communication, and may take decisions without a meeting by unanimous written consent, when the Committee chair considers this to be necessary or desirable. Only members of the Committee have the right to attend Committee meetings, but the Committee may invite others to attend all or part of any meeting if it thinks it is appropriate.

The Secretary will ensure that proceedings and resolutions of all meetings are minuted and that draft minutes are circulated promptly to all members for approval.

The Committee chair must report formally to the Board on the Committee’s proceedings, providing an overview of key matters it has discussed, identifying any matters in respect of which it considers that action or improvement is required and making recommendations as to the steps to be taken.

The Company’s annual report will contain a section describing the work of the Committee in discharging its responsibilities. The Committee chair will attend the Company’s Annual General Meeting and be available to answer questions on matters within the Committee’s area of responsibility.

THE COMMITTEE’S ROLE

The Committee leads the process for appointing directors to the Board and senior management positions in the Company and its subsidiaries (the “Group”), ensuring that appropriate procedures for the nomination, selection, training and evaluation of directors. It has the delegated responsibility to:
